

Barriers to Leadership Development

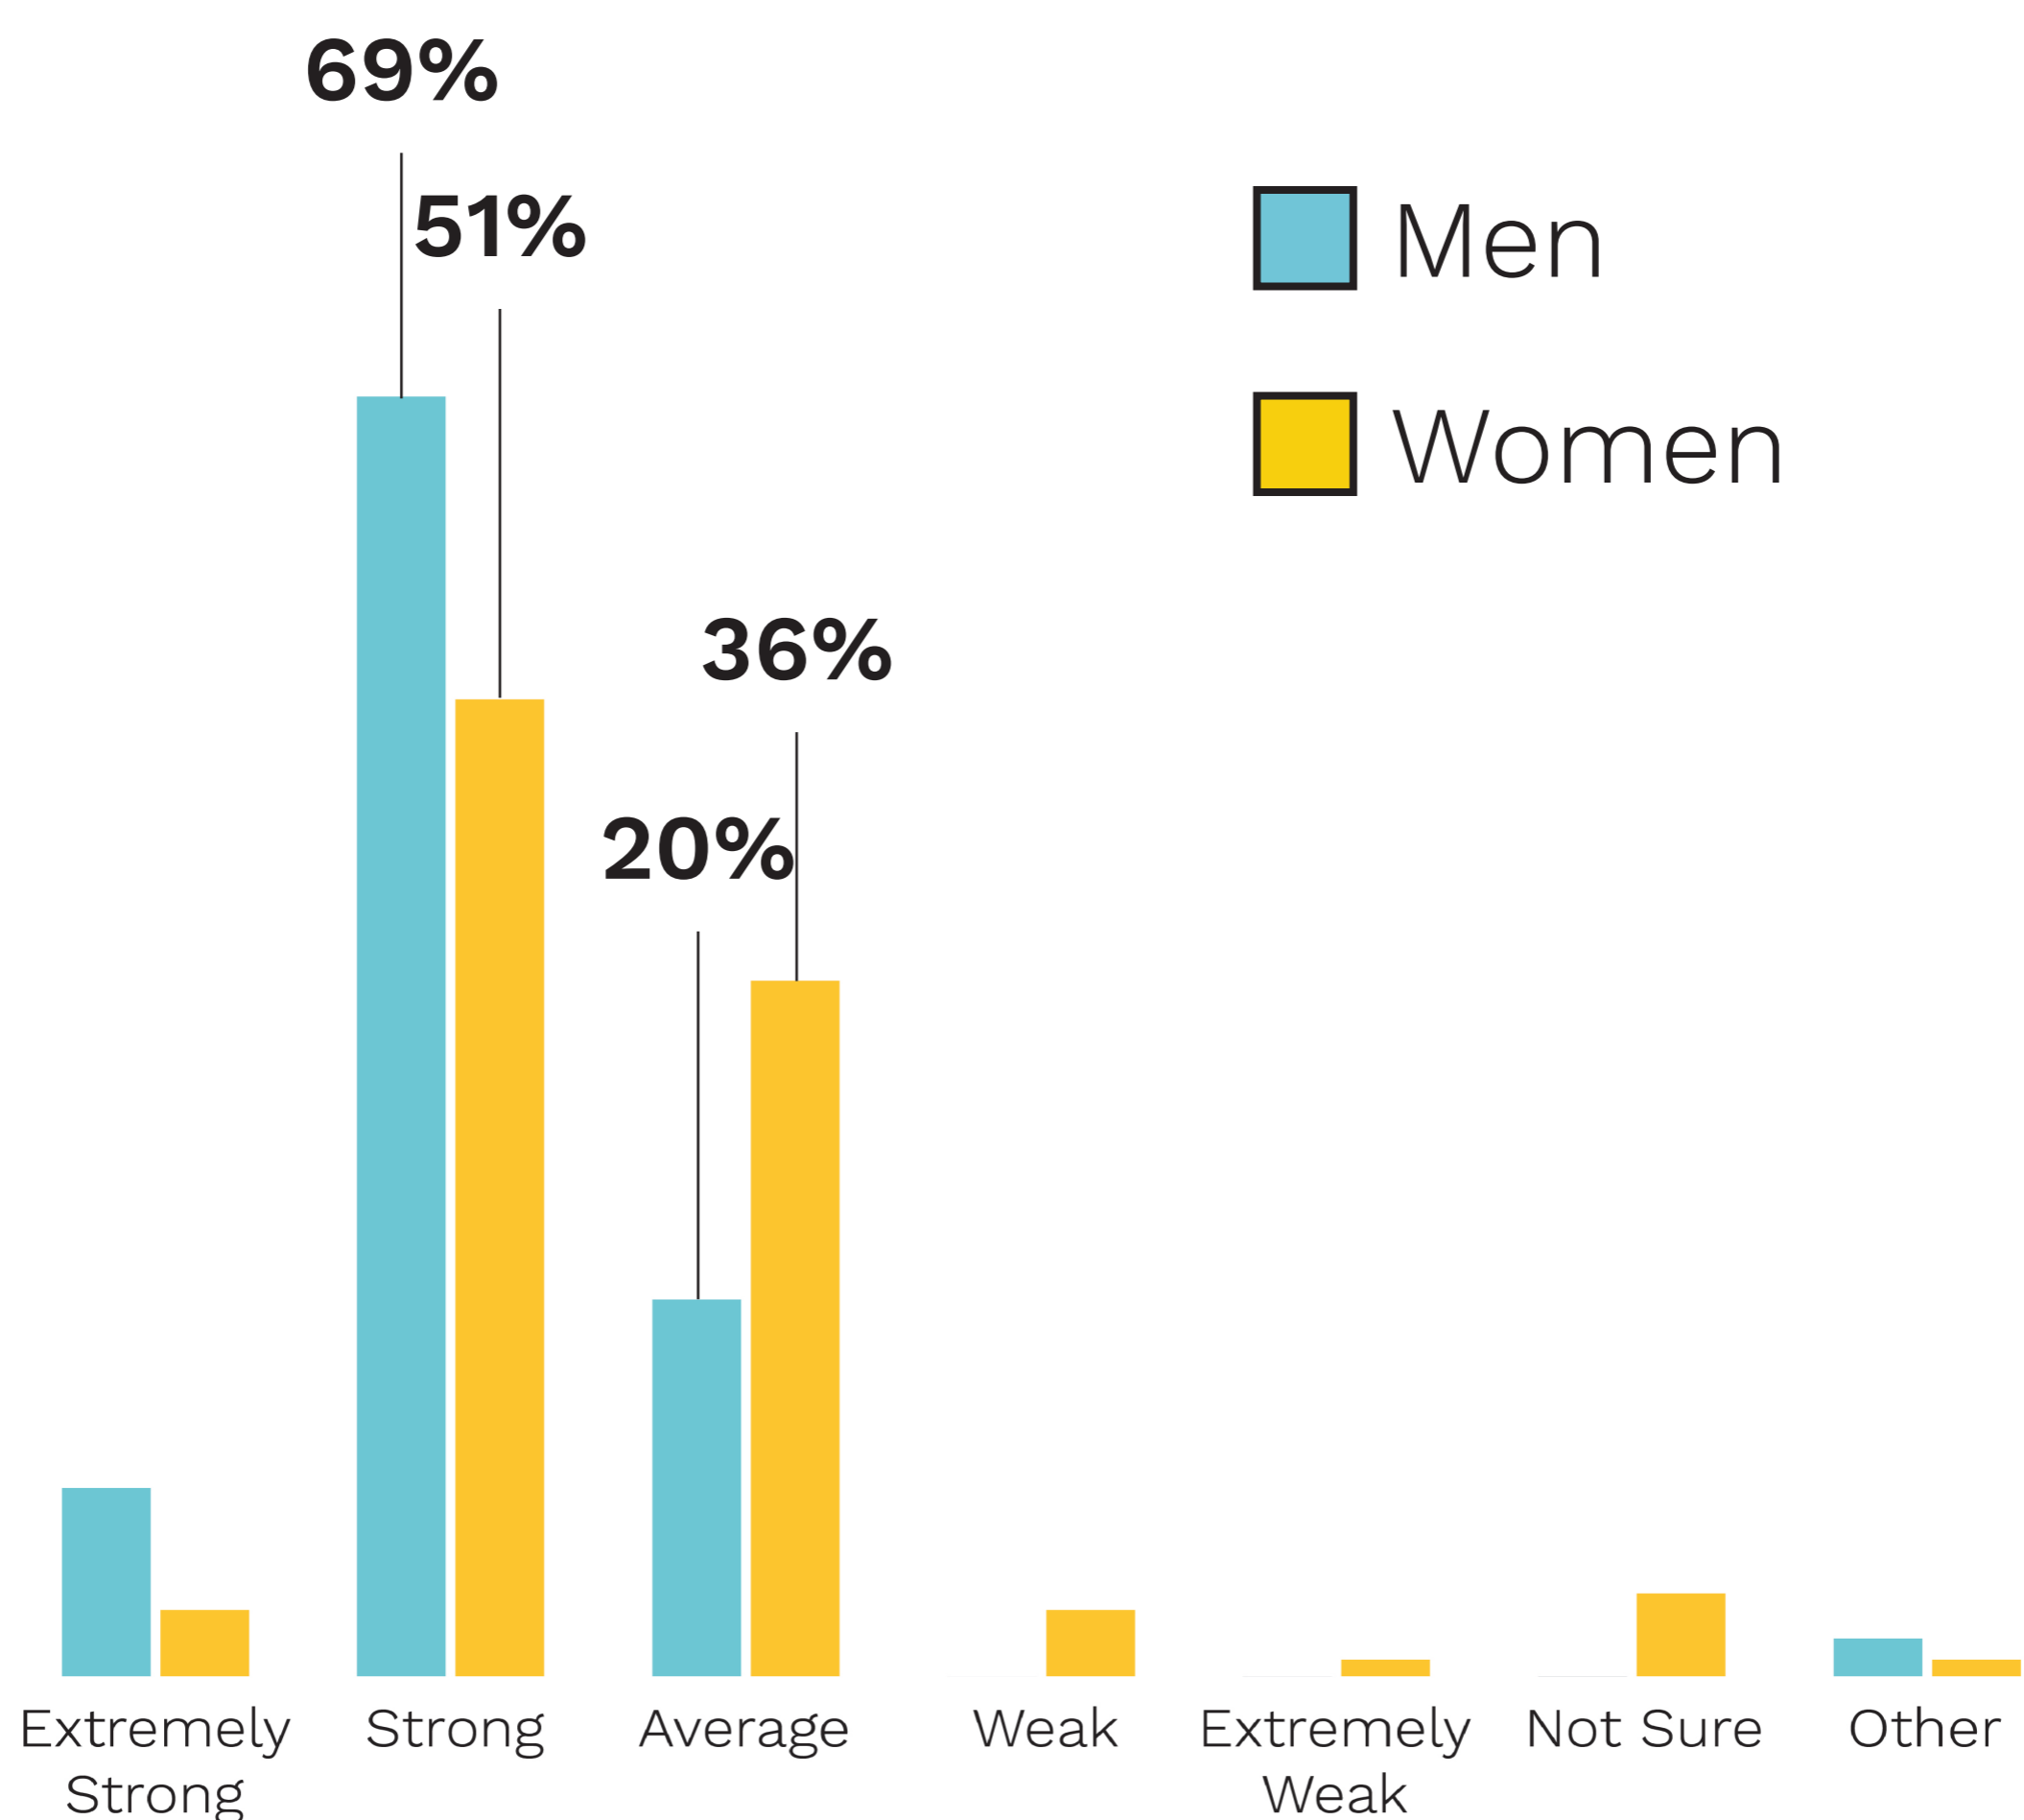

Results from our survey which explored what leadership looks like in the workplace and the lives of a wide range of individuals of different ages, backgrounds and gender.

Many women lose confidence when leading.

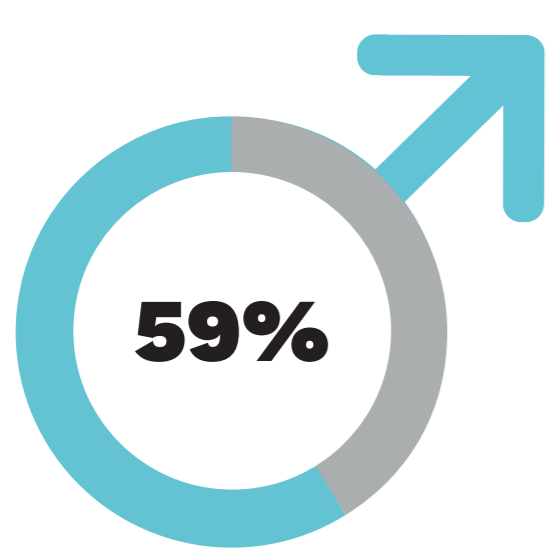

46% of women reported that losing confidence was a challenge they came across when leading.

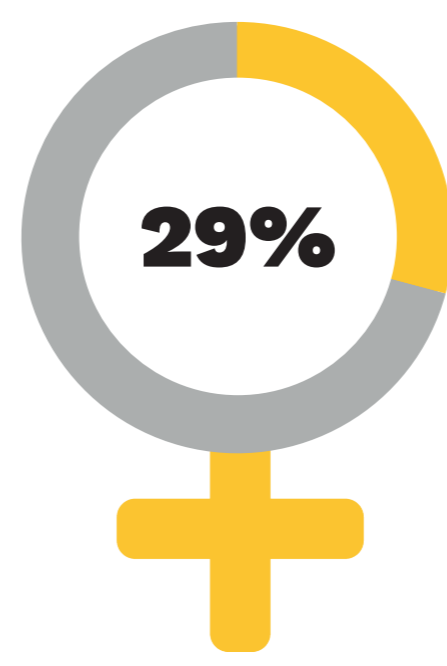

How would you describe your leadership ability?

Link between women, leadership and confidence?

59% of men rate their confidence as strong.

29% of women rate their confidence as strong.

48%

of women are clear about where they are heading in their business about their development needs compared with 76% of men.

Confidence

We have identified a theme in relation to confidence and women in leadership. We are going to explore this further so stay tuned.

We've partnered with PGL so that whilst you are with us, your children can have an inspirational learning experience all of their own.

leadershiptrust.co/kids-go-too

leadershiptrust.co

